

Map of Black Hills Energy 230 KV Transmission Line Rebuild Project - Construction of the transmission line rebuild project will stretch from Black Hills Energy's transmission substation north of Rapid City and run 8-miles south through Rapid City. The line will end at the Black Hills Energy transmission substation in South Rapid City. Construction will occur in two phases to minimize service disruptions.

